

To Whom It May Concern:

It has come to my attention that of the following:

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If successful, anybody that you currently have a business relationship with (e.g., your bank, credit card company, long distance carrier) will be able to call you as often as they want. Over an eighteen-month period, that could translate to over 800,000,000 more unwanted phone calls to Indiana residents.

Please do not allow this. Our family time is precious and we do NOT want it interrupted by these unwanted phone calls. We are also the parents of a small child. We desire to expand our family as well and do NOT want our family interrupted by these kinds of phone calls.

Thank you.

Maria Layton Yang